Delores Havisham is a record label executive and music producer based in Los Angeles, California. She grew up in the sunny southwest of America and pursued her career aspiration of working in the music industry after earning her Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in music from UCLA. Delores works with talented artists from around the world and helps them achieve success in a competitive industry. She also shares her own original musical productions on SoundCloud under the performer name “Deloresaurus” and performs at local venues in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. While Delores usually writes songs for the modern rock genre, she is a country girl at heart who prefers the beauty of folk songs her parents used to play.
